

The trend toward consolidation has already lead several media companies to gain too much power and control over the TV, radio, and newspaper content. And they are pandering to the US and world viewers with an awful lot of trash.

You can consider this rule change all you want. But the private citizens of this country DO NOT WANT YOU TO CHANGE THE RULE.